SEASON 23/24 VS 24/25

The team has shown remarkable growth in its goalscoring ability:

- +22 goals scored compared to the previous season
- 65 league goals (vs. 43 in 2023-24)
- Key contribution from Vanja Vlahović: 18 league goals (41% of the team's total)

A seemingly contradictory situation is observed:

- 1.4 goals conceded per match in the league.
- Yet, there is an improved goal difference (goals for/against)

PERFORMANCE

When comparing the team's home and away performance during the league season, there is a noticeable increase in defeats when playing on the road. This is a common challenge for most teams, as they lack the home advantage and support from their fans.

However, the main area for improvement lies in their home performance, as the team dropped 25 points in home matches this season, with 5 losses and 5 draws. These inconsistencies led to significant fluctuations in the standings, impacting their stability in the league table.

Despite this, the team managed to secure a play-off spot, giving them a chance to compete for promotion to Serie B. For the next season, it will be crucial to strengthen their home form and minimize mistakes in away games to aim for better results.

PERFORMANCE

The team showcased remarkable attacking output:

- 65 league goals (1.8 goals per game).
- 15 additional goals in Play-Offs and Coppa.
- Total: 80 goals across all competitions.

Yet, defensive instability undermined their potential, 1.4 goals conceded per match (among the worst ratios for play-off teams).

The Serbian striker Vanja Vlahović emerged as the team's undisputed MVP, achieving:

- ✓ Top scorer in Serie C-Group A .
- ✓ 27.5% of team's total goals.
- ✓ Play-off qualification catalyst.

22-goal breakdown:

- League (18 goals).
- Play-Offs (3 goals).
- Coppa Serie C (1 goal).

POPULAR ALIGNMENT

The 3-4-2-1 was the primary setup, excelling in:

- ✓ Midfield control.
- ✓ Defensive-attensive balance.
- ✓ Tactical flexibility.

System Highlights:

Hybrid Midfield Engine:

- Dual pivot: Technical playmaker + Box-to-box destroyer.
- Smart coverages: Enable attacking midfielders to exploit half-spaces safely.

Hyperactive Wing-Backs: with defensive contributions.

Fluid Front Three:

- Target striker (Vlahović) + 2 roaming playmakers.
